

ACTIVITY TRAIL WAYMARKING POST

Our oak Activity Trail Waymarking Posts are perfect for discovery trails, designed to inspire exploration and learning. Each post features a tactile rubbing plaque to engage children and families, alongside a descriptive panel that can include text and images to highlight nearby features.

Crafted from durable hardwood oak, they blend naturally into outdoor settings. Positioned at key points along a route, these posts make learning fun, accessible, and interactive—ideal for educational trails in parks, reserves, or heritage sites.
