

LADYBUG

(PP-LADY-GF/SF/WF )

The Ladybug is a hand-played outdoor percussion instrument with six press-activated note pads integrated into a ladybug-shaped body. Mounted on a stainless-steel post with a leaf-shaped base, it offers compact installation and intuitive, mallet-free play.

|                             |                                                                                                                   |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Surface Fix:Ground Fix: | 19 KG / 42 LBS20 KG / 44 LBS                                                                                  |
| Materials                   | Body : LDPE UV15 PlasticBells : AluminumBase : HPLLegs : Stainless steelFixings : Stainless Steel |
| Tuning                      | C-Major Diatonic (C6-C7)                                                                                          |
| Sound Level Data            | 50M – 46dB10m – 53dB<3m – 69dB                                                                            |
| Warranty Download           |                                |
| View On Website             |                                |

