

Sebright Project Wins Award

Baylis Landscapes have received a national award for their fantastic scheme at a school in Hackney, London. The project which was design and built by Baylis and demonstrated a high standard and quality of work. The area was transformed into a space where children are challenged in outside learning as-well as having somewhere inspiring and fun to play!

For more information visit:

www.learningthroughplay.net